Capo: 2

from: Unbekanntes Album

INTRO: G C (x4) G C Am C G

G Today is the day that we climb from the gutters C

Am
Wearing our ties and our sweaters

C
We're coming to work for you

G
We're coming to work for...

We bottle regrets, supermarket and sell them

Am
To all of our neighbour's children

C
It's all coming back to you

It's all coming back to...

INTERLUDE: G C Am C

G And then when I get a little bit older C

Am
I care falling into cold shoulder

C
It's all coming back to me

G
It's all coming back to...

The days they go by like a sere in a rainstorm

Am
You better come in through the back door

C
Or it's all gonna fall on you

G
It's all gonna fall on you

INTERLUDE: G C Am C (x2)

G C
You said to me:

Am C
Whether you've got a new face, new life

G C
It's time you believed

Am C
Whether that makes you hotter or colder

G C
I said to you:

Am
You know that I'm much too stubborn

C
To lose my turn

G C
All the believes

Am
Fall to the ocean floor

C G
So, it's time for me to go

INTERLUDE: G C Am C (x2) G Am Em Am

G
Running through the backyard

Seeing all the sunshine

Am
Cut up the middle man and save yourself the time

Em
We had 80 good years trying to make a decent living

Am
But your life ran dry on that renegade weekend

G
Take a seat in your grave

It's time to get paid

Am
Your life's run up but your soul is just beginning

Em
Take a seat before the judges

Am
Got a feather in one hand, a sickle in the other

G
It's time for you to go

2. Good Morning, Hypocrite

Electric President

Capo: 2

from: S/T

INTRO: F C G

F C G
Feels like the roads stretch out like veins But there's no heart
F C G
Nature's haircut is concrete now We played our part

So we sing

INTERLUDE: (x2)

F
Ba da, da da, ba da da da da da
C G
Ba da, da da, ba da da da da da

F C G
I've lost my taste for modern things They're not for me
F C G
I want mundane, a quiet place Where time is free

And I can sing

INTERLUDE: (wie oben.)

C Em
Crawled from my bed
F C
To collect the thoughts that'd fallen from my head
Bb F
And you watched me sink
G# Bb
Through the carpet, through the basement, and beyond

And you didn't blink

C G F G C
On the glass I traced the sun with my thumb; it sank into the ground
G F G C
And then the stars were blinking like kids who were staring into the wind
G F G C
So I climbed through the window and walked until I lost my name
G F G Am
Now I can play the victim, it's fine, I've seen it on TV
G F
If there's one thing I know, it's that I never really know enough

F Our heads, our mouths, our brains, our C lungs, G They're just machines

F These hearts are all that we've got left C G And they don't beat

F Live a little, talk a lot, it's the way this goes

I've come to fear the little knives beneath their well-pressed C clothes

Their arms are reaching, reach is spreading through the neon G glow

Their mouths are moving, but their voices sound like F telephones

The traffic hums, the traffic grumbles near my old window

The street lights flicker, glow and hover like suspended C snow

I used to watch the moon retreat and wonder where it G goes

Now I just wonder why my head is overrun with F ghosts

3. Grand Machine No. 12

Electric President

from: S/T

INTRO: G C

G This damn machine, this damn machine, this broken head doesn't work C

So they're selling it off again, and

G These crooked legs, these twisted arms, these tired feet lost their worth C

Soon they'll dismantle them

Em Bm C D Em
But we're all just part of some giant grand machine

Bm C D
Too big to really understand

Em Bm C D
But we'll do our jobs till we break down and fall

INTERLUDE: G D C D (x2)

G Now we just sleepwalk. We drift through the week

C A dead procession always dragging its feet. Well, come on G

Our hands are swollen. We all need to sleep

C But there's no time, just stitch us up so we'll keep

Em Bm C D Em
We're all just part of someone's elaborate plan

Bm C D
Chess pieces in some grandiose scheme

Em Bm C D
But we'll do our jobs till we break down and fall

OUTRO: G D C D

4. We Were Never Built To Last

Electric President

from: S/T

G You're on your own now. C We're tired of lending hands.

G Our new agenda: it cuts you from all our plans.

C So get in line, boy. And keep that mouth of yours closed.

Em Don't need opinions. Just work them hands to bones.

C We stood in place and G watched them tear us apart.

D They cut us open and Em ripped out all our parts.

C But we kept quiet. D We let them have their way.

We made our point by having nothing to say.

G We all broke up right on C cue. So-so-so-so-so

G We'll take you down with us, too. C So-so-so-so-so

Em You'd better jump ship. C This bastard is G sinking fast.

D There's nothing to save here. Em Our worth has all but passed.

C The muddy waters are slipping in D through the cracks.

The ship, the ship, the ship is sinking. (x2)

Em We sit on our G hands and D watch it all fall.

C No one blinks an eye.

Em There's not much worth G saving.

D Just lots of buildings and C concrete G colored skies.

G But then you came and D picked us C up.

G You combed our D hair, and C made us G look like people.

D And we learned to feed C ourselves again.

G D C G
We built some homes and filled them full of clones.

C D Em
But we won't wait until you get back.

C D G F C
We'll be gone long before you arrive.

D Em C D
We were never built to last. But we'd like to tell you:

G F C D
Thanks for the good time. It was nice to have known you.

G F C D
We'll all be just fine, and we'll try to write you.

G F C D G F C
We appreciate the lies, but we're done believing you.

INTRO: C Am F Am G

^C While you slept it off ^{Am} Your empire was lost
^F Now we're not your sons ^{Am} Your old silver tongue
^G It don't work too well now

^C We wandered off ^{Am} With our heads nice and soft ^F But we were still numb ^{Am} And we burned in the sun
^G And got torn to pieces

^C I walked across from off my eyes And scratched my name into the sky
The things beneath my floorboards fly I'll never let them out ^{Am} And all my teeth are down at my feet ^C And all of the blood comes in a flood ^F Start counting sheep ^G

^C Then I fall asleep again And by myself I'm wandering
A forest made of skeletons Of people I once knew ^{Am} And all their spines are perfectly aligned ^C Like cold power lines ^F Or forked silver tongues ^G Now I'm out again

^C My feet left the ground ^{Am} And I floated off and got lost
^F Now this ain't my home ^{Em} There's no warmth in these bones
^G Just a mock up to help me pretend ^F I'm sleeping

Volume 1

INTRO: G

Oh, I was born on a Sunday With blood on my hands
 In a room full of photographs And old electric fans
 And I slept in a graveyard For bicycles and cars
 And I dreamed of distant scenery But never strayed too far
 'cause I do what they ask me I never run my mouth
 And by the time you turn against me I'll have you figured out

 And I learned to lie
 By watching you turn to your enemies
 And the apple you've got in your eye
 Has become a stain, you don't want it

 So I left for the city As soon as I could walk
 But the buildings loomed like sentinels It wasn't what I thought
 So I slept in your bathtub While you put your make-up on
 And I day-dreamed about your lungs 'til your cigarettes were gone
 Now I wrote 'cause I have to I'm never welcome home
 And though this road leads to disaster I've always got my songs

 And I learned to laugh (ha ha ha ha)
 By watching you burn all your photographs
 And you're right that the good stuff won't last
 But these wars are never won by our twiddling thumbs

INTERLUDE: C G (x3) D C G (x3) D

Well, I did what they asked me I never ran my mouth

And by the time they turned against me I had them figured out

And now I wrote 'cause I have to I'm never welcome home

And though this road leads to disaster I've always got my songs

And I learned to die

By watching you choke on your miseries

And if the apple gets torn from my eye

Well, I won't be alone 'cause I'm going home

Capo: 2

Unkle Stiltskin

from: Unkle Stiltskin

INTRO: C F (x4)

And you're the one	Who scribbled a life-like sun
And you're just what I'd become	And just couldn't wait till the morning
And you'll be	The one who will fall on me
And help me forget to breathe	And leave me like that till the morning
And then you'll come	Like a law-abiding accent
You'll chop away	At everything I've made

CHORUS:

And it feels like	Digging at the stone with our hands here
And the smart thing	Would be to drop it all and go home
And the right thing	Is never worth its salt in the first place
And I'd like it	If you find the time to leave me alone
'cause the difference in us	Is that I won't flinch when you cut this off

INTERLUDE: C F (x4)

And it's true	There's scabs on my knuckles too
There's nothing much I can do	They'll scar like the ones before them
And now you've come	To scatter all the ashes

Through rolling hills and many miles of blood
We slept in the rainfall and marched through the mud
And you were not like anyone I'd known
You spoke with impunity, had nothing to atone
In quiet evenings you told me what you thought about Servants and some kings and how everyone is bought
And how no one's hands are bloodier than God's
And I won't be judged for doing as I ought It's hard to say just when I fell in love
There was no epiphany, no light from above
But you'd become my candle in the dark
And all through that Hell you were the shield across my heart
When all was fire, and the weather's out for blood
And the boys, still too young to drink, were drownin' in the flood
I'd hear you laughing as I'd come on out for air
And I'd laugh with you, pretending that we care
Now twenty years have passed since the last time I saw you
When I kissed you on the mouth you walked away
I knew that it'd be too much, I knew that it would scare you
But I couldn't find the proper words for what I had to say
But I don't regret a thing

My life started slow

Where daydreams filled the space

And my mom was strange

And all my clothes smelled like

And my dad was calm

And my brother's hands were mischief bent

And on the whole

Our fears were trivial

In a town of idle minds

Between our simple dramas

But she'd always liked it so

The room I was born in

Never used two words when one would do

With no will to stop 'em

We lived simply in day-to-day

They always died with every sunset

INTERLUDE: F C G (x2) F

When I was twelve

And I was told that some things I heard

But I couldn't tell

And the question loomed over all I did

And I guess over time

And I was sent away

'cause she'd grown to fear me

My affliction came to light

Were only there in my head

Which were real and which were not

Whether I could trust it

It became too much

At my mom's behest

INTERLUDE: F C G (x2) F

Now I live up north

And my father comes and visits me

Sometimes at night

I find I hope that I am missed

In the house for the broken heads

Whenever he can afford it

When the voices quiet down

And that they haven't forgot me

I was just a boy My father seemed a mountain then

With a voice that could shake the seas

My mother's ghost hung across his shoulders

And he said she was still watching over me

My brother was home Just returned on army leave

Told his stories with a distant stare

And as it snowed The wind was howling through the trees

And I spent my night just listening by the fire

INTERLUDE: G Em Bm C G Em B C B Bm B Bm

My hands move the creases

From my brow

Soft as a breath

It's like a feather

I dreamed of a lonely voice that night

Quiet as death

Outside my window

It sang a sad and lovely tune

Clear as a bell

Soft as a shiver

It said, I want you all the time

It said, I want you all the time

When you were young	You'd bite your tongue
Calm, always did what you were told	Never ran your mouth
Lived life on tiptoes	Only felt peace if by yourself
When mistakes don't count	There's a hole in your chest
From the time that you were born	One that don't get filled
Cause you've always known	You're nothing they want

But everybody's bones are just holy branches
Cast from trees to cut patterns in the world
And in time we find some shelter
Spill our leaves and then sleep in the Earth
And when we're there we'll belong
Cause the Earth don't give a damn if you're lost

Oooooo...oooo...ooo... (x2)

Now I live alone	Work in the belly of machines
Wring my soot-black hands	And I don't sleep much
Days don't feel different	From the nights
With no goals in mind	There's a hole in my chest
From the time I walked away	One I fill with sweat
So now I know	I'm nothing they want

That it's probably gonna take some time But there are better days to find Yeah, it's probably gonna take some time But there are better days to find

Hello, Hope, it's been a while I thought I was damned to watch life through my hands Now I'm not in the place I thought I'd be Makes looking back a whole lot simpler

I thought that I could be the difference I thought I could outsmart all the pain But like life advice that's scrawled across a bathroom stall It wasted everyone's time

So now I'm saying goodbye And I'm learning to fend for myself Now, we started playing with fire Believing that it would just keep us warm Well, there's no need to run When you're travelling down the wrong road No, yeah... there's no need to run When you're travelling down the wrong road

Can't see the forest for the trees Heard it plenty of times, but now I know what it means And if you hold too tight you're bound to lose The very things you've decided are precious

Now I've learned I'm not so special No need to carry all that weight You don't have to ask if you're allowed to fall apart So now I just say:

There ain't no fixing this, but I like that you tried Sometimes the hardest part is being right There ain't no helping me, but I like that you lied Sometimes it's worth the burn marks to feel the light

And I don't wanna know why I just want to know how to move on now The past is buried in time And the future's an anxious invention Oh, and you never arrive Unless you accept your dead ends Yeah, you will never arrive Unless you make peace with your dead ends

52. Bishop's Song

Radical Face

from: Severus and Stone

I've got a little story ^G That I'd like to tell
About a boy named Bishop ^D Who lived atop this hill ^G
People called him a slow boy Said he weren't all there
But he never harmed none ^D Oh no, he wouldn't dare ^{Em}

But when the neighbour's daughter ^C Said the child was his ^G
Well, the people turned then ^D And wanted blood for his sins ^{Em}
Bishop tried to tell them ^C That none had shared his bed ^G
But the words escaped him ^D He found tears instead ^G

Well, his father begged then ^G For him to bend his knee
That they might be lenient ^D In time would set him free ^G
But the boy just stood there With a steady gaze
And said they'd have to break him ^D 'cause bending weren't his way ^{Em}

So they came and took him ^C And dragged him off in chains ^G
And with the town as witness ^D He was forced to pay ^{Em}
It weren't 'til he was gone ^C That the girl cleared his name ^G
And now his ghost still haunts us ^D To this very day ^G
